Submitted. According to G.O No. Pris 62-31-dated 11th May 1932 the Sub-assistant-Surgeon of the Central Jail, Bangalore and the Jail, Mysore are entitled to a charge allowance. This has been confirmed by G.O No. PHA. 576-I dated 28th June 1935.

Since the Jail at Mysore was reduced to the position of a Sub-Jail in 1933 and continued as such till April 1939, no Sub-assistant-Surgeon was posted to the Sub-Jail at Mysore during the period and consequently no claim could be made for the charge allowance, the part-time Superintendent of the Sub-Jail who was a Medical officer held charge of the Medical side also. With the restoration of the Sub-Jail to its former position of a Jail from April 1939, a Sub-assistant Surgeon had been posted to the Jail as provided in the budget of the Jail and it is said that he took charge from 1st June.

Sir,

In forwarding herewith a copy of letter No. 523 dated the 5th April 1941 received from the Superintendent, Mysore Jail regarding the grant of a charge allowance of Rs. 10/- per mensem to the Sub Asst. Surgeon of the Jail, I have the honour to state that ever since the Mysore Jail was reconverted into a regular Jail, the number of prisoners in that Jail has ranged between 250 and 300, sometimes going above 500 as in November 1939. With the increase in the Prison populati the number of In and Out patients of the Jail Hospital has also increased requiring constant care and attention on the part of the Sub Asst. Surgeon. Apart from this, the Sub Asst. Surgeon has to examine all the newly admitted prisoners, record in the Admission registers and the History tickets, the particulars as regards their health, labour and the like and also attend to th various other duties enumerated under sections from 61 to 65 of the Mysore Jail Manual Vol. I. He is further required to be available for duty at any time of the day and night to meet emergencies and is thus deprived of private practice - a privil which the Sub Asst. Surgeons in Institutions other than the Jai Hospital are able to command. It is to compensate him for th loss of private practice that the Sub Asst. Surgeon attached to the Central Jail is allowed to draw a charge allowance of Rs. 10

Rs. 10/- per mensem. I am of opinion that the Sub Asst. Surgeon of the Mysore Jail also deserves this concession.

The Government Order No. Fl. 9420-2/S & A 585-34-1 dated the 28th June 1935, provides for the grant of a charge allowance to the Sub Asst. Surgeons attached to the Jails at Bangalore and Mysore. At the time when this Government Order was issued, the Mysore Jail was only a Sub Jail and as there was no Sub Asst. Surgeon on the Establishment, the question of giving effect to the Government Order did not then arise. Now that the Mysore Jail has been revived into a regular Jail as before 1933, I recommend that, as provided under the Governmen Order read above, the Sub Asst. Surgeon of this Jail may be sanctioned a charge allowance of Rs. 10/- per mensem from 1st June 1939 - the date on which he joined duty in the Jail.

I request early orders of Government,

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Offg. Inspector-General of Prisons.

Letter No. 523/Enc.1 dated the 5th April 1941 from the Superintendent, Mysore Jail, Mysore to the Inspector-General of Prisons in Mysore, Bangalore.

In continuation of this Office letter No. 3505 dated 26-11-40 submitting therewith the application of Dr. Syed Ghous Sub Asst. Surgeon of this Jail praying for the grant of charge allowance of Rs. 20/- per mensem, I have the honour to submit herewith the copy of G.O. No. F.L.9420-2/S & A. 585-34-1 dated 28-2-1935, wherein the Sub Asst. Surgeons of Bangalore and Myso Jails are permitted to draw a charge allowance of Rs. 10/- per mensem in addition to their pay. When this Government Order was passed this was only a Sub Jail and there was no Sub Asst. Surgeon attached to the Jail Hospital. The Sub Jail was converted into the a District Jail from 1st April 1939 when the post of a Sub Asst. Surgeon was also revived.

Dr. Syed Ghouse joined duty here on 1-6-39 as Sub Asst. Surgeon of the Mysore Jail Hospital, and he is therefore entitled to draw a charge allowance of Rs. 10/- per mensem from the date of his joining duty in this Jail. The Sub Asst. Surgeon of the Bangalore Central Jail also is receiving a charg allowance of Rs. 10/- per mensem vide G.O. read above.

In view of the above circumstances and for the reasons stated in my letter No. 3505 dated 26-11-40, I request you to kindly accord sanction to draw a charge allowance of Rs. 10/- per mensem to Dr. Syed Ghouse from the date of his joining duty here. I solicit the favour of early orders in the matter.
